- Old Business
 - Homework Club/Tutoring – completed Thursday, April 27. Adult reviews were very positive. Next year even more specific skills will be targeted. A paid volunteer/aide was really helpful to coordinate this. Updates to parents on attendance of their child will be helpful. Some days there were 15+ kids, others days only 6 kids were there. More rewards/prizes/tokens will motivate the students. A fall group will be started after testing, which will break after Thanksgiving. Then it will restart for January through April.
