

Teacher Resource Page

Online/Digital Reputation	<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Nearpod - This lesson focuses on digital footprints. It helps students to decide what is ok to post online and what type of information should be kept private.2. Article - This site gives information about hazards and tips for teachers to protect their digital reputation.
Online Safety	<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Article - This resource gives tips for teacher to stay safer online.2. Presentation - This lesson from Netsmartz teaches students internet safety and includes a pledge for them to sign at the end.
Protecting Personal Information	<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Nearpod - This lesson focuses on keeping information private online.2. Article - This site gives information about identity theft. It includes some tips and discussion starters.
Social Networking	<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Article - The site by CommonSense explains information about Instagram, including information for parents and discussion questions.2. Article - This resource by CommonSense explains the pros and cons of youtube. It also includes resources for parents and conversation starters.
Online Gaming	<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Article - This website by PBS explains video games for grade schoolers and nine ways to make the most of digital games. It also includes many tips for adults.2. Website - This resource by Netsmartz explains discussion points and statistics about online gaming and communicating with new people through game use. It includes many tips for adults and parents.
Copyright	<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Nearpod - This lesson teaches students about taking ownership of their own creative work and giving credit to other authors.2. Video - This video teaches student what copyright is in student-friendly language.
Plagiarism	<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Article - This article teaches students what plagiarism is and how to avoid it. It even has a 'listen' feature so students do not have to read it themselves. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 2. Video - This video teaches students about plagiarism in a humorous manner.

Cyberbullying	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Nearpod - This lesson teaches students how to screen out the mean and what to do if someone is mean online. 2. Article - This site explains what adults can do to stop cyberbullying and explains the warning signs that a child could be a victim.
Sexting	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Website - This resource from Netsmartz explains how to talk to teens about sexting. It includes statistics, tips, and conversation starters. 2. Article - This resource from CommonSense includes a video and article with advice for adults and eight things that parents and teens should talk about related to sexting.

Above Digital Citizenship Image: <http://sbo.nn.k12.va.us/itc/digitalcitizen.html>
 Lower THINK image: <http://libguides.infohio.org/digitalliteracy/digitalcitizenship>